Epilepsy Warning
 READ BEFORE USING YOUR VIDEO GAME SYSTEM

A very small percentage of individuals may experience epileptic seizures when exposed to certain light patterns or flashing lights. Exposure to certain patterns or backgrounds on a television screen or while playing video games may induce an epileptic seizure in these individuals. Certain conditions may induce undetected epileptic symptoms even in persons who have no history of prior seizures or epilepsy. If you, or anyone in your family, has an epileptic condition, consult your physician prior to playing. If you experience any of the following symptoms while playing a video game—dizziness, altered vision, eye or muscle twitches, loss of awareness, disorientation, any involuntary movement, or convulsions—IMMEDIATELY discontinue use and consult your physician before resuming play.

Warning to Owners of Projection Televisions:

Still pictures or images may cause permanent picture-tube damage or mark the phosphor of the CRT. Avoid repeated or extended use of video games on large screen projection televisions.

REX AND THE HEX

For millions of years dinosaurs had cruised the prehistoric party-lands, doing cool dinosaur-like things in perfect harmony. Primordial life was totally kick-back—skateboardin', groovin', chowing down at all-you-can eat salad bars and just hangin' out. Living in the dino-world was as awesome as a high-speed board-jump through the freshest half-pipe! Way cool.

But then one day... out of nowhere—like a sideways board-slide... came the MAMMALS!

At first it seemed that these mammal-types were just little furry nuisances that occasionally had to be wiped from under your feet. No sweat—skateboardin' did get a little bumpier, but there was no major change in the lifestyles of the hip and happenin'. So the dinos partied on...

Until the day Skriitch showed up. Skriitch, a funky-lookin' mammal with magical powers, busted out of the frozen wastes to carry out his master plan: to reduce all dinos to ZIP so that mammals could rule the earth! Not exactly a cool deal for the righteous reptilian race.

Skriitch jetted through the once kickin' lands using his sorcery to zap the doomed dinos with his horrible hex. With a wave of his hypnotic wizard staff, Skriitch placed most of the dinosaurs in the land under his nightmarish command. Brutal!... If Skriitch continues spreading his evil magic throughout the rest of the dino-lands, the prehistoric world will be hating life!

With dinosaurs doing Skriitch's dirty work, the land before time was almost out of time—but one young dino-dude was too hip to fall under the sway of Skriitch's magic. Radical Rex, the raddest, baddest dinosaur on prehistoric pavement, keenly outsmarted the evil wizard's mortal curse.

So now Rex must take on the grim guru before he gets to the rest of his dinosaur buds... and most importantly, to his dino-darling Rexanne! Will the Mesozoic bad boy be able to "ex" that hex—or lose his main squeeze and the entire dinosaur race to the sinister sorcerer Skriitch? Radical Rex—the dinosaur world's last hope for restoring prehistoric partying.

STOP SKRIITCH'S HEX!

Whether the result of a calculated dino-move or just plain luck, it's up to Rex to defeat the power-hungry Skriitch—and to save Rexanne and the dinosaur race from extinction. You must help Rex thrash through dangerous prehistoric worlds to defeat the evil Skriitch—before it's too late!

HANDLING YOUR SEGA CD

1. This Radical Rex CD is intended solely for use with the Sega CD System.
2. Do not bend it, crush it or submerge it in liquids.
3. Do not leave it in direct sunlight, near a radiator or any other source of heat.
4. Be sure to take an occasional recess during extended play to rest yourself and the Sega CD.
5. KEEP YOUR CD CLEAN. Always hold by the edges and keep it in its case when not in use. Clean with a lint-free, soft, dry cloth—wiping in straight lines from center to edge. Never use solvents or abrasive cleaners.

STARTING RADICAL REX

1. Set up your Sega CD System according to the instruction manual supplied with the system. Radical Rex is programmed to take full advantage of the Sega CD System's stereo to fully experience the awesome soundtrack!
2. Insert the controller into the Control 1 port.
3. Make sure the cartridge slot on your Genesis is empty. If it is not, turn the power off and remove the cartridge. Warning: Never insert or remove a cartridge from the console while the power supply is on!
4. Follow the instructions provided with your system to open the CD drive and place the CD onto the bed of the drive, making sure that the printed side faces upwards.
5. Close the drive following the instructions that came with your Sega CD System.
6. Press the START button to begin play.
7. After a brief pause, you should see the Sega and License screens followed by the Radical Rex preview and title screen. If they fail to appear, turn the power off, make sure your system is set up correctly and turn it back on.

(Note: You can interrupt the game preview at any time by pressing START on your Controller to bring up the title screen.)

1 PLAYER:

A 1-player game is already selected; press the START button to begin.

2 PLAYERS:

Use the D (directional)-Pad to move the cursor down to "2 Players" and press the START button on your controller. Before each turn, the screen will let you know who's up next. Press START again to continue.

Game Options

To change the game settings before playing, use the D-Pad to move the cursor to "OPTIONS" on the title screen, and then press the START button. The Options Menu will appear on the screen. Use the D-Pad to select the setting you want to change.

DIFFICULTY—Choose from three difficulty settings: Easy, Medium or Hard. Use the D-Pad left/right to scroll through your options. (Note: The game defaults to the Easy setting.)

SOUND—Use the D-Pad to set your sound preferences for play during the game; you can set both Music and FX, FX Only, Music Only or None.

CONTROL PAD SETUP—You can assign Rex's moves to just about any button on your controller. Use the D-Pad to move the cursor to "CONTROL PAD SETUP" and press any button. A list of moves will appear on the screen followed by the button that is currently assigned to each.

Use the D-Pad to move the cursor next to the move you want to assign. Then, press the button you want to assign the move to on your controller. Use the D-Pad again to move the cursor down to the next move you want to assign.

Press the START button to exit the Control Pad Setup mode when you are done. (See the Radical Moves section for the default Control Pad setup.)

ANIMATION TEST—This option lets you get a preview of Rex's cool animations. Use the D-Pad left/right to scroll through the animations. Then, press START to exit the animation mode.

Move your cursor down to "EXIT" and press the START button to exit the Options Menu and return to the title screen.

RADICAL MOVES

(Note: The following controller operations refer to the default button settings. See "CONTROL PAD SETUP" in the Options menu to change your controller settings.)

REX CHECKS

Rex's Health-o-Meter—
Measures Rex's life force.

Dino Egg Counter—
Keeps count of Rex's
dinosaur egg collection for the bonus world—80 dino eggs get you in.

Roar-Rater—Shows how much roaring power Rex has picked up.

Fire-Tracker—Keeps
track of Rex's fire-breathing potency.

Rex Chances—Shows you how many chances Rex has left.

Oxygen Gauge—Lets you know how much longer Rex can hold his breath underwater.

PICKING UP DINO-MIGHT

-  DINOSAUR EGG—Go on a dinosaur egg hunt—collect 80 and make it to the bonus world! Your screen displays the result of your egg hunting for each world. (The egg count will start over at the beginning of each world.)
-  FIRE FOSSIL—Pick up Fire Fossils to increase Rex's fire-breathing power. The more he picks up, the more burnin' his flame can do.
-  FIREBALL FOSSIL—Find a Fireball Fossil and give Rex's fire-breath a powerful new twist; Rex can use this magical form of defense until he is hit.
-  ROAR FOSSIL—Pick up enough Roar Fossils to blast out terrifying roars and leave them shakin' in their reptile boots!
-  HEART FOSSIL—Pick one up and restore Rex's health.
-  REX CHANCE—Gives Rex another chance as a dino-hero.
-  AIR BUBBLE FOSSIL—Looks like it's time to take a "breather."
-  INVINCIBILITY FOSSIL—Grants Rex invincibility for five seconds—just enough time to get past a dino-foe.

Speeder—Out-of-control speed is its only weapon.

Stingerfly—This fly is on a sting operation.

Hylaeosaurus—Uses its built-in protection and a flurry of fireballs to skin some dino-hide.

Burster—Explodes and splatters globs of goopy purple acid.

Pterodactyl—Circles the skies dropping rocks from above.

Puckersaurus—Puckers up to spit out a steady stream of fireballs.

Bullfrog—Attacks with a whip of his tongue.

Sucker Fish—Get too close and it'll suck the air out of you!

Ghoulie-bird—Don't let 'em spook you—or get near you...

Scorpion—Shoots out a weird poisonous venom from his tail.

Stiffceratops—Spits out bones—if it gets you, you're bummed.

Zomb-T-Rex—Likes to slam-dance—with or without a head.

Swamphorse—Bucks at anything in the way of its swamp-trot.

Crab—Skuttles about snapping its claws to pinch its prey.

Nose-Leech—Get a grip on yourself—or he will!

MAKIN' TRACKS ON DINO TURF

Walking/Riding

Rex struts his stuff on or off his board. Sometimes he'll find that his Tyrannosaurus tootsies supply him with the best form of transportation, while other times his board will give him the speed he needs to get him where he wants to go. But remember, Rex rides a skateboard, not a 4-wheeler, so if you try to skate where no board has gone before, you'll find yourself going on a very short ride.

Breathing Fire

Rex's roastin' ability can petrify the nastiest prehistoric monsters to a blackened crisp, but think fast—those bad boys can snap out of it and put Rex in the hot-seat before you know it. Watch the Fire-Tracker to see how much firepower Rex has picked up. The more Fire Fossils Rex picks up, the mightier the flame-breath he sports.

Kicking

The Rexmaster can kick up a storm—a dust storm, that is. Once Rex has fried one of his enemies, all it takes is one swift kick to turn that crispy critter into a puff of dust. See ya! What's up next for the karate-king of barbecue?

Climbing and Swinging on Vines

Jump on a vine and Rex will be quick to hold on for his dino-life. Then, use the D-Pad to climb up or down the vine. Or, if climbing doesn't seem like the hip thing to do—do what swinging singles do... First, use the D-Pad (left and right) to gain some momentum, then jump off.

Swimming

Rex can only do the dino-paddle for as long as he can hold his breath. To get more air, there are three things Rex can do: 1) swim up for air, 2) grab an AIR BUBBLE FOSSIL, or 3) go suck a fish! The third option may not be common behavior for a cool dino like Rex, but the generosity of some fish makes it worth it. (Rex's Oxygen Gauge at the top of the screen will let you know how much swimming time Rex has left.)

Blowing Bubbles

When Rex is underwater, his fire-breathing capability turns into a different form of defense—bubble-blowing. (Well, what did you think would happen if you breathed fire under water?) Although this capability is not lethal, it will undoubtedly push aquatic enemies away to give Rex the swimming space he needs for a clean get-away.

Jumping

Rex can bust out with the coolest, raddest jumps on or off his board. Rex jumps higher than you would expect most dino-dudes to jump and can get even higher with a little help from his friends... Try combining his talents to show-off moves like the karate jump-kick. Excellent!

Roaring

A dinosaur isn't born with a powerful roar, it comes with experience. The farther Rex advances in his mission, the more opportunities he will have to improve his roaring power. Once Rex has the stuff that real dinos are made of, he can use his mighty mouth to blow away those Mesozoic meanies.

Trashing/Firing Skateboard

The Rexmaster may find himself in situations that call for some slick board maneuvers. He may need to ride his board to get to a certain point, then jump off in mid-air to land on his feet. Rex may find that trashing his board is the quickest way to solid ground. But Rex can also use his board to defend himself. So dinos, stand back—Rex may be armed and dangerous! (Note: If Rex chooses to trash or fire his board, it's trashed for good and he's gotta find a new one before he can hit the slopes again.)

REX TRACKS

Rex will have to jam through five different dino-worlds to rescue Rexanne and save his dino-buds from extinction! No sweat for the Rexster... But just when Rex thought it was safe to go back into the jungle — Rex has to make it back through all five worlds AGAIN!

STRATEGY HINTS

- Look for useful objects when searching for higher ground—they're sure to put a spring in Rex's step.
- If Rex's board supplies a quick lift but gets in the way of a footed landing, trashing it may be the only way to solid ground.
- Don't be so quick to dust off a charbroiled enemy, Rex may need a stepping stone to get where he wants to go.
- If the Leapsnake's got Rex down...his throat...start up the fireworks!
- You've gotta be light on your toes to light up a Tiki Torch...
- Give a new meaning to "board-thrashing"—take aim before you trash your board!
- Show the Dino-Graveyard Boss your fancy footwork — up-side his head...then burn away the fleshy bones to finish him off!
- Here's the low-down on dodging the pesky Pterodactyl in Skriitch's Forest the second time around—find the lowest point and DUCK!
- Skateboard tricks may get you more than just a pat on the back...
